The roads in the Schwerin district are divided into three classes:

1. Military roads 1 (Befehlstrassen 1)

- a. Wismar - Schwerin - Ludwigslust, connecting with the roads leading to Berlin and Hamburg.
- b. Grevesmühlen - Wismar - Rostock - Stralsund.
- c. Warnemünde - Rostock - Güstrow - Plau - Meyenburg - Pritzwalk, connecting with the road to Berlin.
- d. Gadebusch - Schwerin - Sternberg - Güstrow - Teterow - Malchin - Stavenhagen, connecting with the road to Stettin.

On orders from the Russians these roads may, under special conditions, be used only by Russian troops. Special permits are issued by the SMA at Karlshorst for German ministers and high SED members.

2. Military roads 2

These are the most important of the connecting roads between the above-mentioned roads. Under special conditions these also may not be used by the civilian population.

3. Military roads 3

These are the other roads, on which traffic is permitted at all times.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
